

PEACEBUILDING IN AFRICA: OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

Global Peace Services USA is pleased to invite you to a presentation and discussion with Ambassador Princeton N. Lyman on Sunday, June 24TH from 7:00-9:00 pm. Light refreshments will be provided. We will meet at a location convenient to the Takoma Park Metro Station in NW Washington, DC. (detailed directions will be provided to those who RSVP).

Ambassador Lyman will share his experience and views on “Peacebuilding in Africa: Opportunities and Challenges.” He is eminently qualified to speak on this subject, as current U.S. Special Envoy for South Sudan and Sudan since March 2011. Other relevant posts held by Dr. Lyman include U.S. Ambassador to South Africa (1992-1995) and to Nigeria (1986-1989), as well as Assistant Secretary of State for International Organization Affairs (1996-1998).

Please let us know by phone or e-mail if you plan to join us on June 24th. If you will be bringing guests with you, please indicate their names. Please RSVP to gpsusa@gmail.com or at 202-216-9886 no later than Thursday June 21st. We hope to see you on June 24th for what will be a stimulating and lively evening!

For further information on Global Peace Services USA, a non-governmental, non-profit organization for the prevention and resolution of violent conflict, please see our Web site (www.globalpeaceservices.org).

John Eriksson, President, GPS USA